Falling in love is easy, relationships sometimes less so, and you may feel uncomfortable about discussing what may happen if things do not work out or finances generally.

Sometimes, in order to achieve clarity and provide some assurance for your future together the most romantic thing you can do, as well as choosing the flowers and design of rings, is to draw up an agreement.

How to propose a prenu?

Romantic contracts are ideal for protecting or ringfencing:

- Finances
- Property
- Business assets
- Family wealth
- Inheritance
- Second marriages
- Unmarried partners
